THE COST OF NOT FORGIVING

Message by Bishop Edir Macedo

Forgiveness is not a matter of feelings but a rational decision taken in the mind.

In the kingdom of God, there is no injustice. The Lord Jesus came to live and walk among us on earth, and gave His own soul to save the souls of those who want and are hungry and thirsty for justice. Therefore, the Lord Jesus declared: “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness (justice), for they shall be filled” (Matthew 5:6).

This hunger and thirst is for the justice that comes from God, not a person or an institution. God is righteous—whoever forgives is forgiven by Him, and whoever does not forgive is not forgiven.

Forgiveness is the door to the kingdom of God. One does not need to deserve to be forgiven but needs to want to do it, act on this desire, confess their errors, and repent of them. If God forgives all those who ask this of Him, then it is fair for Him to refuse to forgive those who refuse to forgive.

Forgiveness is not a matter of feelings but a rational decision taken in the mind. Its power and reach are unlimited.

Pride hinders forgiveness, and this is one of the greatest evils that have manifested since the error of Cain.

His cruelty was but a reflection of what was inside him: resentment toward his brother and God.

The pride that impedes forgiveness acts as a plague that holds a person's life back.

One might be religious, generous, or seemingly good; and he could even play an active role in the church.

However, if he does not forgive, he will not be forgiven, and God will not accept anything from such a person.

Therefore, if there is any resentment in your heart or pride that impedes you from forgiving, free yourself from this curse. If you do so, your life will be unblocked and you will have access to the kingdom of God. ✠

DO YOU WANT TO BE WEALTHY AND SUCCESSFUL?

Do you want to be successful in your professional life, love life, and finances? Here's the secret - simple and painless:

“There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God and shunned evil... this man was the greatest of all the people of the East.” Job 1:1,3

Job was the greatest of all the people of the East.

How did he become so successful? By being blameless and upright, and by fearing God and avoiding evil. These are the qualities you need for certain success.

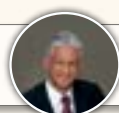

If you don't possess these qualities, any success you achieve will be short-lived. To change your life, you must change how you live. Change your mind, perceptions, and choices.

“To change your life, you must change how you live.”

Although Satan comes to steal, kill, and destroy, he cannot access the lives of those who are right with God. Stop accepting his suggestions for success and prosperity because true riches come from God.

If you don't allow money to become your master, and if you live a righteous life before God, He will bless you. You can be financially successful while glorifying His name.

Do you want success? Obey God.

A DAY OF POWER AND MIRACLES

“ I was drowning in debt and struggled to feed my children. ”

By Tania Nguanda | uckg.org.za

My name is Lucy Peba. Before, my life was drowning in chaos. I was a very unhappy person. I used to stress a lot because, although I earned a decent salary, crushing debt consumed everything.

Sleepless nights haunted me, as I struggled to feed my children and had to borrow money from different people every month just to survive.

A Life-Changing Encounter

I attended the Amandla Ngawethu event, and it changed my life. The powerful message awakened me: sitting idle while problems multiply changes nothing.

I surrendered all my troubles to God that day and pleaded with Him to help me.

Transformation Beyond Measure

Things started to change. My children started going to church and also surrendered their lives to God. We all committed ourselves fully to our newfound faith.

Lucy attended the Amandla Ngawethu event, and it changed her life.

The Result

Now, peace fills my soul. I can manage my finances and I am no longer overwhelmed by life's challenges. Though I still face problems every now and then, God's Spirit provides supernatural strength and wisdom to overcome them.

Join us at the Amandla Ngawethu event and see for yourself what God can do.

Israel Mkhwanazi

My life was trapped in addictions and depression. I could not find peace.

During the Amandla Ngawethu Event, I surrendered my troubled life to God. Now I'm free from addictions and depression, and my life is fulfilled and filled with peace.

Israel was trapped in addictions and depression.

Rosie Mokgetle

I was divorced, homeless, and hopeless.

At the Amandla Ngawethu event, I surrendered my burdens to God.

Now I am truly content and at peace. I have my own home and my family is happy and thriving.

Rosie had no place to stay and felt hopeless.

You are invited to experience what thousands already did.

5 W'S: WHAT

WHAT CAN I DO TO KEEP MY PEACE?

In previous editions, we explored these W's:

1. Why have I tried everything and yet my life remains the same?
2. Who can change my life?
3. Where can I find the solution to my problems?
4. When will the answer come?

Today, we conclude this series with: What can I do to keep my peace?

Life is full of daily challenges, such as stress at work, conflicts at home, and unexpected disappointments.

These situations can disturb our peace if we are not intentional about protecting it. Maintaining peace requires setting aside time to pray and reflect, forgiving those who hurt you, and focusing on what truly matters.

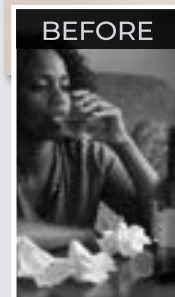

At the Universal Church, you can encounter the One who gives eternal peace. Through prayer and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, you can find calm in the midst of life's storms, clarity in confusion, and strength to face each day with hope.

Visit the Holy Ground Cathedral or any Universal Church branch to seek and receive the peace God wants to give you. Let Him restore your heart and mind and fill your life with lasting peace.

I Thought My Life Was Stuck Until I Changed Direction

From frustration to clarity and peace.

By Albertine Chitswa | uckg.org.za

Busisiwe drank alcohol regularly and fell into depression.

I grew up attending services at the Universal Church and was actively involved in church activities. However, when things did not go as I wanted, I stopped attending church.

I found myself in a toxic relationship and began drinking alcohol regularly. I became pregnant, and I felt overwhelmed and alone. The instability of the relationship and the disappointment I felt in myself led me into depression.

I decided to go back to church, not just physically but wholeheartedly. I worked on rebuilding my relationship with God. Gradually, my life began to change. I found peace where there had been confusion, stability where there had been chaos, and hope where there had been despair. I realised that God had not delayed my life; I just hadn't trusted His timing.

SUFFERING!

Real Change.

THE PAIN BEHIND THE SMILE

Even though my name is Happiness, I was never truly happy. I struggled with low self-esteem and constant sadness.

In the church, I heard messages about surrendering to God, but I did not take them seriously. I lived by my own rules and not God's word, and only turned to faith when I wanted blessings.

I got married believing that it would make me happy, but our marriage was filled with quarrels and anger.

I was very active in church, and to many, I seemed devoted, but inside I was empty.

When I was in the church, I was calm and pleasant, but at home, I was angry and unstable.

My husband often asked why I still went to church if my Happiness today is truly happy. Her character has changed, and her marriage is restored.

behaviour was so terrible. Deep down, I knew something was missing. I had no peace.

I was tormented by fear, disturbing dreams, panic attacks, and voices telling me I would die.

The Wake-Up Moment

For years, I pretended that everything was fine, until the physical isolation of the 2020 lockdown exposed my bad spiritual condition;

I could no longer hide behind church activity. That's when I realised that I desperately needed to change. I humbled myself before God and confessed all my sins to Him.

I surrendered my life to God and let go of the anger and sadness I had inside of me.

This time, the change was real. I was no longer fearful and I stopped having disturbing dreams and panic attacks.

I now have true peace within me. My character has changed, my marriage is restored, and I no longer live a life of pretence but am honest before God and the people around me. 🙏

DEATH FELT LIKE MY ONLY ESCAPE

By Albertine Chitswa | uckg.org.za

The Darkness of Desperation

“At home, I felt unwanted and was constantly criticised. I was physically and emotionally abused, which destroyed my self-esteem.

I began searching for acceptance in alcohol, pornography, and casual relationships that only left me feeling emptier and more ashamed. I was trying to escape the pain of rejection and the feeling that I did not matter.

“I carried a rope everywhere I went. I believed that it was the solution to my problems; I thought hanging myself would end my pain.”

I blamed my family for my suffering and believed that my past had ruined my future. Depression consumed me, and death felt like the only way out of the daily emotional torment.

A Turning Point

Everything began to change when my sister invited me to attend services at the Universal Church. I went there without any expectations, but for the first time, I felt noticed and cared for. As I continued attending services, I learned how to forgive those who had hurt me and take responsibility for the consequences of my own choices. I realised that I needed a complete change of heart.

The Path to Transformation

I decided to stop drinking, watching pornography, and living recklessly.

Through prayer, fasting, and obedience to God’s Word, my thinking and behaviour began to gradually change.

Now I am no longer depressed or suicidal. I am at peace and I’m content.

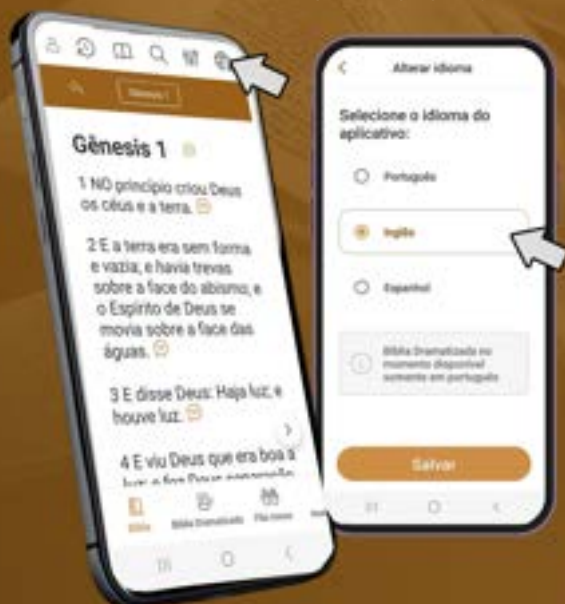

The rope that once symbolised death is now a distant reminder that my life has been completely transformed and restored by God,” said Nkosinathi.✉

I am no longer depressed or suicidal. I am at peace and I’m content.

SW'S: WHAT

WHAT CAN I DO TO KEEP MY PEACE?

From Suicidal Thoughts to Unshakeable Peace

Kutlwano felt trapped in hopelessness

By Albertine Chitswa | uckg.org.za

“As a child, I was moved from one church to another, including the Universal Church, where I first experienced stability and joy.

However, the church-hopping left me confused and searching for spiritual grounding for years.

Eventually, I stopped going to church altogether, and I felt lost, like I had no sense of belonging.

After graduation, repeated job rejections led me into deep depression and suicidal tendencies.

At my lowest point, I returned to the Universal Church and committed myself to the chains of prayers. I surrendered my life to God and He started taking care of every area of my life.

Now I am no longer depressed or suicidal. I am happily married and have a good job.

My life is a testimony of God’s greatness,” said Kutlwano.
